

University of New Haven

HENRY C. LEE COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE & FORENSIC SCIENCES

M.S. IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

ONLINE PROGRAM

M.S. IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

A Nationally Recognized Master's Program That Is 100% ONLINE

At the University of New Haven, you do not have to choose between furthering your education and continuing to work. Our online program is designed specifically for the working professional and can help you reach your goal of earning a criminal justice master's degree.

- Classes are 100% online so you can take them from anywhere
- Convenient 7.5-week terms during the academic year and 6-week terms during the summer
- Complete all 36 credits in as little as 2 years
- 24/7 access to content and materials so that you can work on advancing your education at a time of day that is convenient for your schedule
- Begin your online master's degree during any of our 6 terms – no need to wait to jump start your career.

Earn Your Master's FROM THE MASTERS

With one of the oldest and most respected criminal justice programs in the nation, the Henry C. Lee College has been helping students achieve success for more than 50 years. As part of our philosophy, you will be learning from instructors who have experience in the fields they are teaching. Former law enforcement officers, FBI agents, Secret Service agents, police chiefs and more. Our instructors work together to provide the highest quality education, integrating core academic learning objectives and the professional application of these competencies.

By choosing UNH for your online master's degree, you can count on honing your skills and preparing yourself to become a leader in your profession.

Some of our UNH MSCJ graduates have been successful in the:

- Chief State's Attorney's Office
- Department of Justice
- Department of Homeland Security
- Department of Defense – National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency
- FBI
- Federal Bureau of Prisons
- U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Choosing UNH's Criminal Justice Master's Degree

Our robust online program explores:

- How to gather data and analyze factors that impact crime
- How to investigate various types of crime
- Current and emerging issues facing criminal justice agencies
- Strategies for being an effective leader and creating a successful organization within a system that interfaces with criminal justice

M.S. IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Applying to UNH's Criminal Justice Master's Degree

If you are ready to apply, here is what you will need to complete your application:

- Academic transcript(s). Students applying for admission to a graduate program at UNH must hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution
- Two (2) letters of reference
- A personal statement (optional, but encouraged)
- A resume (optional, but encouraged)

We do not require you to take or submit scores from the GRE or other exams. The admissions committee will, however, consider such information in its decision if submitted.

Completing Your Criminal Justice Master's Degree

The Criminal Justice master's degree, offered completely online, can be completed in two years. Students take 12 consecutive courses that are offered during the academic year.

Paying for Your Criminal Justice Master's Degree

Tuition for the 2015-16 academic year is $30,564 or $2,547 for each class. There are no additional fees, and the cost of the program includes all of your textbooks and course materials. The program qualifies for financial aid.

Space for our program is limited. To learn more about the program and how to apply, please visit: <http://cjonline.newhaven.edu/>, or email OnlineAdmin@newhaven.edu.